

David Farmer Drama INSET and CPD 2021

Since 2005, Drama Resource has supplied high quality Drama INSET training across the UK and abroad in primary and secondary schools as well as at conferences. Our award-winning Drama CPD training is now available online for individuals or staff training days. The content is ideal for teachers and teaching assistants with a focus on cross-curricular strategies or specific topics.

Staff Training

We deliver our award-winning online CPD through a secure interactive platform (including videos with practical examples) as well as comprehensive downloadable resources. Let us know if you would like a 'test-drive' or to discuss presentations tailored to the needs of your school, ideal for half or whole day training, with optional live webinars.

Individuals

Join The Inspiring Drama Teacher course and work through the modules and videos at your own pace. Download superb lesson plans and info-sheets and join our monthly live Zoom sessions to dive deeper into drama teaching and share ideas with like-minded professionals (available to watch afterwards).

'Excellent CPD, money well spent and a wealth of ideas to take away... Thank you!'
Toni Browne, Headteacher, St Peter's Primary School, Folkestone.

'The INSET day was pitched just right for us. There were lots of practical fun ideas for all sorts of lessons. They were easy to remember; easy to build into lessons and worthwhile.'
– Director of Studies, Ashfold School, Buckinghamshire.
